EASTER EGG-CELLENCE: THE BUNNY HOPS INTO BAY, WAVELAND AND PEARLINGTON

BY GEOFF BELCHER
PUBLISHER

The city of Bay St. Louis and Mayor Mike Favre welcomed a huge crowd of children and their families on Saturday for the Bay’s annual Easter egg hunt at the city Sports Complex. In addition to the egg hunt and lots of treats, the kids enjoyed free hot dogs and refreshments, a visit with the Easter Bunny and a bouncy house.

Favre thanked everyone for attending the event and thanked the sponsors who made it possible.

Also on Saturday, the Pearlington Public Library and Pearlington Impact hosted their fourth annual Bunny Hop event, with music, face painting, a petting zoo and photos with the Easter Bunny.

On Sunday, American Legion Post 77 and the city of Waveland hosted their annual Easter Egg Hunt.

Coming up this weekend — the Hancock County Community Committee will host its 5th annual Easter Egg-Stravaganza on Saturday, March 30, beginning at 2 p.m. at McLeod Park’s Big Pavilion.

The Easter Bunny will be there for photos with the kids. There will also be a parade, golf cart decoration contest, Easter Bonnet/Best Dressed contest, fire truck display and hot dogs and soft drinks.

Also on March 30, Viola Ishem and family along with the Greater Mt. Zion Church is hosting its annual Easter parade and Easter egg hunt.

The parade begins at 2 p.m. at Greater Mt. Zion Church, 16223 3rd St., Pearlington. The route follows down 7th Street to Hwy. 90 and ends at Rev. Sam’s Park. The Easter egg hunt will be held at the park. A reception will follow at the Pearlington gym. Free food. The public is welcome to attend this free event.

BAY HOSTS RIBBON CUTTING FOR NEW POLICE DEPARTMENT

BY GEOFF BELCHER
PUBLISHER

The city of Bay St. Louis on Friday hosted a ribbon cutting ceremony to officially open the long-awaited new police department and public safety complex.

The building, located next to the Bay St. Louis Fire Department on Main Street, is “very much needed,” Mayor Mike Favre said last week, “not just for our police department, but for the community, as well. It’s long overdue.”

The facility was named in honor of the late former Bay Police Chief Douglas J. Williams, who was the first black police chief in the state.

The old Bay St. Louis Police Department was de-

County green lights creation of community garden next to Pearlington Public Library

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Last week, Hancock County Library System Executive Director John Brdecka asked the Hancock County Board of Supervisors’ permission to utilize land next to Pearlington’s library in order to create a community garden. The proposed area is located next to the walking track. Brdecka said one of the reasons that area was chosen is because it’s some of the “most fertile” in that area. The water line is also located straight across the area, which would mean they could pull a line off it and put a meter there to sustain the garden. “We received a grant from Coast Electric for $6,600 to begin a community garden,” he said.

“For the people of Pearlington, I think that this would be useful to our staff and the people of the Pearlington community, partnering with organizations like the 4H group, Master Gardeners, things of that nature, to bring the nutrition information to the people of Pearlington. It’s also in our strategic plan as part of bringing a community garden to Pearlington Public Library.” Brdecka said he’s had multiple conversations with the Pearlington Impact Association and there will also be people in the community volunteering to help maintain the garden. Library staff members would also contribute, as well, he added. “We’ve already met with a few Master Gardeners and they are looking to continue to have a group within the community move forward with maintaining the garden to sustain it long-term,” Brdecka said. The board unanimously voted to authorize the use of the land as a community garden. In a separate matter, Alicia Lick spoke to the board about a bus safety issue on the county maintained Road 374. “This is actually in reference to the erosion and narrowing of the road,” she said. “So we’ve got probably a quarter mile stretch on a curve, wooded that you can’t see oncoming traffic. There’s been a couple of occasions where we’ve had to stop, back up all the way up the gravel road so that people can pass. One of those times was a bus. We’ve had a bus hit the ditch in the past.” Lick said she is not making any progress in her attempt to speak with someone from the schools. She asked the board how the standards are determined, how they are maintained, how to keep the kids safe, and how to get communication. Board President Scotty Adam said the Hancock County School Board would be the entity to speak to about the bus route. “We did not build that road, we can tell you the standards for the way the road should be built,” he said. “A lot of times this happens when they get the road built, they want to turn it over to the county, but it’s to be built to standard.” She also addressed the watershed improvement project at the very end of Road 374. “We are curious as to who is going to maintain this after the two years that Digital Engineering is responsible for the maintenance of this,” Lick said. County attorney Gary Yarborough said there’s a warranty period and only future maintenance would be the scope of the warranty. “Otherwise, it’s still going to be a private property,” he said. Lick said that so, after the warranty period, which could be about two years or so, the three home owners are going to maintain this $650,000 drainage project? “To the extent there’s maintenance required,” Yarborough said. “It’s private property.”

Lick wanted to know if there’s a document in everything they signed stating that the homeowners are responsible for the maintenance? “We didn’t take your property, so it’s still going to be your private property,” Yarborough said. “By statute, we can’t maintain private property other than to the extent we have permission, which we did for the drainage work.” In other action: The board appointed District 2 Supervisor Greg Shaw and District 1 Supervisor Donald Wayne Graham to the Hancock County Regional Solid Waste Authority Board of Commissioners. The next meeting is scheduled for April 1 at 9 a.m.

CASA swears in new advocates to aid local children

Special Advocate volunteers train to serve the children in their charge

BY GEOFF BELCHER
PUBLISHER

CASA of South Mississippi last week hosted a ceremony to swear in six new advocates from each of the three counties it serves, Hancock, Harrison and Stone. “I take the position that we want as much information about the child and family as we can get,” Hancock County Judge Trent Favre — one of the three judges who swore in the new advocates — said last week. “Everyone brings a different perspective, so CASA brings a child focused perspective.”

CASA of South Mississippi and CASA of Hancock County provide abused and neglected children with quality advocacy in the court system and to secure a safe, permanent, and nurturing home for them by recruiting, training and supporting a diverse network of Court Appointed Special Advocate volunteers. The Special Advocate volunteers go through a rigorous training process to help them to better serve the children in their charge. Gary Blackburn, Nancy Artigues, Brother Barry Landry

SPECIAL TO THE ECHO

The board of directors of Saint Stanislaus has appointed Mr. Gary Blackburn president of the school and Mrs. Nancy Artigues principal for the 2024-2025 school year. Mr. Blackburn succeeds Brother Barry who will complete an eight-year term as president. Mr. Blackburn and Mrs. Artigues assume their new roles on July 1, 2024.

“Brother Barry’s 13 years of service at Saint Stanislaus has been a blessing for our school,” said Mr. Robert Vollenweider, chairman of the board of directors. “He has been driven to enhance our students’ experience and to continue the mission of Saint Stanislaus in providing a place of sanctuary. The formation of lay administration in the charism of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart is critical for the continued success of SSC. The board of directors firmly believes Gary and Nancy are well prepared to lead SSC as President and Principal, respectively.”

Mr. Blackburn has served as principal since 2017, and Mrs. Artigues has been assistant principal since 2018. Mr. Blackburn has served in a variety of teaching and administrative roles at several Catholic schools, including nine years at Brother Martin High School in New Orleans, assistant principal at McGill-Toolen in Mobile, Alabama, for eight years, and five years as principal of St. Ignatius Catholic School, also in Mobile.

Mrs. Artigues worked as a teacher, consultant, and administrator in Catholic and public schools including nine years at Holy Trinity and four years at St. Clare. She also served as an instructional coach and private/public school consultant for the Mississippi Department of Education.

Mr. Blackburn earned a Bachelor of Science in math education from the University of New Orleans and a Master of Science in secondary education from the University of Alabama. Mrs. Artigues received a Bachelor of

Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service.

Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display.

We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaize Avenue and Main Street.

"We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

CONSERVATION CORNER: TREE RINGS, PART I

Upon closer examination of trees, one can discover growth records, water, and climate records and even the vegetative history of an area. For this reason, trees are known as nature’s historians.

When you look at the top of a tree stump you find a series of concentric rings, known as tree rings. These rings become larger and larger in diameter outward from the center of the stump. Tree rings contain individualized characteristics that reveal fascinating facts about water and climate conditions in the life of the tree. For example, several unusually narrow rings may indicate extreme drought years. Because each tree ring represents a year of life for the tree, the tree’s age can be determined by counting the rings. Therefore, if the year of cutting is known, counting backwards from the outer ring can determine the age of the tree. This process is called “dating” and the study of tree rings for the purpose of dating is called dendrochronology.

So, what are tree rings and how are they formed? To grow, trees must increase the size of their xylem—the woody portion exclusive of bark—by adding new tissue between the existing xylem and bark. Growth depends on the amount of soil moisture within the season of growth—an annual cycle beginning with the opening of leaf buds in spring and ending with the dropping of leaves in autumn. The growing tree forms two types of cells; large, thin-walled cells when soil moisture is abundant and small, thick-walled cells when soil moisture is less available.

The production of these cells determines the tree-ring boundaries. The wood between these two boundaries is formed during one growth season and is popularly referred to as a growth ring, or tree ring. At the end of its first summer, once germinated from seed, a seedling has one increment of growth layer. Somewhat cone-shaped, this increment is a fraction of an inch in diameter and only a few inches in height. This increment will not grow or

Hancock History: J.F.H. Claiborne

In our previous column a biography of the first Governor of the State of Louisiana, William C.C. Claiborne, was presented. His nephew, John Francis Hamtramck Claiborne (1807-1884), was also an important figure in the history of Hancock County in the Nineteenth Century. J.F.H. Claiborne was a successful planter in the Pearlinton area before and during the Civil War. In his later life he wrote the works that brought him recognition as Mississippi’s foremost historian of the Nineteenth Century.

Claiborne was born in Natchez, MS to a prominent family of plantation owners. He was educated in Virginia and served in his early life in the Mississippi Legislature and the US Congress. He moved to New Orleans and speculated in land, cotton, and slaves. In 1849 he decided to become a gentleman cotton planter and he moved to Hancock County. He bought the old Saucier plantation on Mulatto Bayou called “Sea Island” and renamed it “Laurel Wood Plantation.” This house stood until it was razed for construction of the Port Bienville Industrial Park.

During this antebellum period, Claiborne wrote Mississippi history. With Benjamin Wailes, Joseph B Cobb, and Benjamin Sanders, he organized in 1858 the “Mississippi Historical Society.” He made substantial profit from his cotton plantation. He had one hundred slaves and paid off his debt by 1861 with an annual income of six thousand dollars a year.

The Civil War disrupted his operation. He deemed it necessary to send his wife and daughter to stay with family in Natchez for the duration of the war. His son joined the Confederacy and Claiborne was torn between supporting the Union or the Confederacy. His son died fighting for the cause. Like many people in Hancock County, he survived during the Civil War by maintaining contact with both sides of the war, without being shot for treason. In fact, both armies needed various products from planters such as cotton. In truth, Claiborne was a spy for the Union, providing intelligence about local salt production, Mobile Bay fortifications, and coastal smuggling activities. In return he was allowed to transport some of his cotton and some of his neighbor’s harvest for much needed hard currency. On the other hand, simultaneously he was made a purchasing agent to Belgium for the CSA sending cotton through the blockade. Furthermore, Claiborne urged the Union general at Fort Pike, twelve miles from Laurel Wood Plantation to allow trade of foodstuffs like flour for the citizens of the Coast who were having a hard time acquiring enough to eat. Consequently, he was not arrested by the Confederacy or the Union during the War Between the States.

After the war Claiborne took the oath of allegiance to the United States. He actually persuaded the new carpetbag governor of Mississippi to get the federal government to compensate him for his losses at Laurel Wood Plantation. He agreed to write articles defending General Grant, and he supported Grant for President.

Claiborne stayed at Laurel Wood Plantation until 1870. At that time he inherited the Dumbarton Plantation from his mother-in-law and moved to Natchez for the rest of his life. After that, he only visited Hancock County infrequently. On one such visit he went to Bay St. Louis to speak at the Centennial Celebration of July 4th. He wrote a lot of history in this time frame. In 1879 he published his first volume of “Mississippi as a Province, Territory, and a State.” Sadly, the unfinished manuscript for volume two was lost in an explosion of a Mississippi River steamer. Claiborne died at Dumbarton Plantation in 1884, and is buried at the Trinity Churchyard in Natchez.

MS House Weekly Summary - Week of March 18

This was the twelfth week of the 2024 legislative session. Next Wednesday, March 27 is the deadline for original floor action on House appropriations and revenue bills. Members will then continue to work on general bills from the Senate. The House did discuss two of these Senate bills this week despite the deadline being a few weeks away.

On Wednesday, the House took up Senate Bill 2453. The bill would authorize the Public Service Commission to cancel a municipality’s certificate to provide utility services upon findings of inadequacies. The City of Holly Springs Utility Department (HSUD) currently provides power to almost 12,000 customers not only in the city limits but also to customers in Marshall, Benton and Lafayette Counties in Mississippi and Fayette and Hardeman Counties in Tennessee. Customers of HSUD have experienced frequent outages for years, including 133 outages in 90 days. After much debate, the bill passed as amended by the House by a vote of 78-32. SB 2453 has been held on a motion to reconsider.

House Education Chairman Rob Roberson (R – Starkville)

introduced Senate Bill 2332, which would revise the funding formula for MAEP. The House adopted Strike-All Amendment 1, inserting the House’s INSPIRE Program (HB 1453) into the bill instead. Strike-all amendments are commonly used when taking up bills from the other house. SB 2332 passed as amended 94-18, and it has been sent back to the Senate.

Bay woman gets five-year sentence in fentanyl case

ECHO STAFF

A Bay St. Louis woman was sentenced to 57 months in federal prison for conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 50 pills containing fentanyl.
Emma Kate Stoute, 19, was sentenced in U.S. District Court in Gulfport.
According to court documents, on August 29, 2023, the Hancock County Sheriff's Office and the Drug Enforcement Administration followed up on a written complaint alleging drug trafficking at the Motel 6 in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. Agents surveilled the motel and narrowed down the suspected parties and rooms. Agents observed a red Toyota Camry arrive at the hotel to pick up two of the individuals suspected of selling drugs. Agents followed the vehicle across state lines and observed the occupants of the vehicle participate in what appeared to be a drug transaction in Louisiana. After the transaction, agents followed the Camry back into Mississippi and conducted a traffic stop. Stoute was one of the occupants of the vehicle and she was in possession of 50 pills containing fentanyl. A subsequent search of Stoute's cell phone confirmed that she was trafficking fentanyl pills.

According to the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, fentanyl is approximately 100 times more potent than morphine and 50 times more potent than heroin. The DEA reports that two milligrams of fentanyl can be lethal, and one kilogram of fentanyl has the potential to kill 500,000 people. More facts on fentanyl can be found at <https://www.dea.gov/resources/facts-about-fentanyl> and <https://www.dea.gov/resources/facts-about-fentanyl>.

On November 27, 2023, Stoute pled guilty to one count of conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute fentanyl.
U.S. Attorney Todd W. Gee of the Southern District of Mississippi and Special Agent in Charge Steven L. Hofer of the Drug Enforcement Administration made the announcement.
The case was investigated by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Hancock County Sheriff's Office.

D'head man arrested in La. after I-10 pursuit

ECHO STAFF

A Diamondhead man was arrested in Louisiana last week after allegedly leading law enforcement officials on a high-speed pursuit from Gulfport across the state line.
Christopher Colt Brown, 41, was arrested in St. Tammany Parish last Wednesday and charged with felony fleeing, assault on a law enforcement officer and other drug and firearms violations.
Harrison County sheriff's deputies initially stopped

Brown in Gulfport for an apparent traffic violation. Officials said Brown's vehicle contained items "indicative of drug use."
Brown drove away, leading deputies on a pursuit on I-10 into Louisiana, where he reportedly crashed into a patrol car near Slidell.
Louisiana State Troopers took him into custody. Officers of the US Border Patrol also assisted.
Brown was initially held without bond, pending other charges.

molished in November 2020 due to extensive black mold infestation. Since the demolition, Bay P.D. has been housed inside the city hall building on Hwy. 90, but officials say it's been a little too cramped.
In May 2022, the Bay St. Louis City

Chief Toby Schwartz said the new complex is approximately 10,000 square feet and will provide state-of-the art facilities for employees and citizens, including booking areas, holding cells, interview rooms, evidence storage, gun lockers, separate showers and locker rooms for the officers, and a forensics processing facility.

Favre thanked the Mississippi Legislature for procuring money for the project from the Gulf Coast Restoration Fund, including Rep. Brent Anderson and Rep. Mike Thompson, who also spoke at the ceremony last week.
Anderson said he was very proud that the first bill he had authored for the state legislature helped secure the funding for the building.

"They came up with $2 million through grants," Favre said during a tour of the facility last year. "The other $2.5 million came through our general fund to fully fund the project."

ELVIRA AHRENS BREWER

Elvira Ahrens Brewer, 86, died Sunday, Aug 27, 2000, in Bunkie, LA.

Mrs. Brewer was born and raised in Arabi, LA, and eventually resided in Bay St. Louis, MS. She was an avid parishioner of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church where she was a member of the Altar Society. She was well known in the community for her steadfast faith and overwhelming generosity. She so deeply loved her Catholic faith and shared her faith with her beloved family and friends. She would often send out holy cards to all of her great nieces and nephews. Those cards are still cherished to this day. Many family members truly believe Elvira has joined the communion of saints in Heaven and pray to her often.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Frederick and Marie Louise Puig Ahrens; sisters, Rosemary Ancaroni and Claire Louise Ahrens (died as an infant); and nieces Rosemarie Ancaroni (Tomlinson), Jean Ancaroni (Mordaunt) and Cheryl Ancaroni (Armand). She was also preceded in death by the love of her life, Redden Andrew Brewer. She waited 25 long years to meet Redden again in Heavenly paradise. During his tenure in the U.S. Army, Redden and Elvira wrote numerous letters back and forth. Redden often fondly began his letters with “My dearest darling”. Their love for each other was one of storybook. Their military and civilian travels sent them from Okinawa to San Antonio, and eventually to Bay St. Louis. Although Elvira and Redden were unable to have children of their own, she was always affectionately known as “Nannie” to her nieces and great nieces/nephews. She treated them all as her own. She would share her excitement with them when they came from out of town every summer, by purchasing grab bags, pool floats, coloring books and much more. Her home was their favorite summer destination.

She loved to dance and was offered a chance to pursue her dancing dream in New York City, which she unfortunately had to turn down. Fittingly, she met Redden, her true love, at a dance in which she wore a daisy in her hair. She also held an enormous love for animals, including her beloved Chihuahua “Pepe” and her cat “Prisy”. Visitation was at Edmond Fahey Funeral Home in Bay St. Louis with recitation of the rosary. A service was held at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with burial in Gardens of Memory Cemetery in Bay St. Louis.

Elvira’s original obituary, while accurate, did not adequately reflect her loving influence upon all those who came to know her. This obituary was rewritten, in honor of her loving memory, by her great nieces.

WILLIAM MAURICE BURTON

William Maurice Burton was born on December 21, 1943 to James and Ida Burton in Pearlinton Mississippi. Maurice, as he was fondly called, passed away peacefully on March 8, 2024 in Bay St. Louis Mississippi. Maurice was born and raised in Pearlinton and also raised his 3 children there. He graduated from Valena C. Jones High School in 1961 and soon thereafter went to work as a cook at the then Dunbar Hospital. He later went on to work with various contractors at the Stennis Space Center (the “Test Site”) as a warehouseman and a driver.

Maurice loved to cook and he was good at it. He always had something on the stove, a big pot of smoky red beans or tender mustard greens. He loved to show off his cooking talents and his neighbors and friends benefited. He welcomed everyone to his table for a good meal.

Although Maurice did not fit the typical definition of loving, caring and kind, he had his own way of showing it to those he loved. He was a provider, and he offered encouragement and correction equally. He was unapologetically himself...ALL OF THE TIME. For all the good he has done and all of the lives he has positively impacted, he will be fondly remembered and sorely missed.

Maurice was preceded in death by his parents, James and Ida Burton, his brother Richard C. Burton, his niece, Shaun R. Burton and his grandson, Floyd V. Willis, Jr.

Maurice is survived by his daughter, Regina Willis (Floyd) of San Diego, CA, his two sons, Adrian Burton and Ronald Burton both of Waveland, MS; grandchildren, Ariane Willis-Smith (Steve) of San Diego, CA, Desiree Terry of Bay St. Louis, MS, Keely Jones of Starkville, MS, and Kirsten Burton of Gulfport, MS; 10 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren and a host of family and friends.

We would like to thank the staff at the Dunbar Village Retirement Community for the love and care they provided for our dad during his time there. Additionally, we appreciate the staff of the Vital Care Hospice group for their outstanding service provided to our family.

A memorial service in Maurice’s honor will be held at a later date.

FLOYD RICHARD HODA JR.

Floyd was a truck driver his whole life and left this world peacefully March 13, 2024 surrounded by family.

He is proceeded in death by his loving parents Richard Hoda Sr. and Lottie Hoda, his beloved sister Faye Hoda. He is survived by his loving brother Faron Hoda and his wife Lori a sister Fran Littleton and her husband Jeff two nephews Richard and Garret Littleton two nieces Lindi Hoda and Chasity Johnson a great niece and nephew Marceline and Woodrow Littleton.

Floyd was very loved by all who met him whether it be through his travels over the years or coworkers.

For those lucky enough to know Floyd, they can confirm that he had uncompromising integrity, he was tough as nails and his work ethic was unsurpassed.

Like a modern cowboy, he was a mix of seeming opposites: strong yet kind, hard-working yet fun loving, solitary yet social. He loved to tease and be teased; he loved to both hear and tell a good story – and he had as many of them as he had miles driven. He was filled with faith in God and love for his family that was unsurpassed.

A memorial service will be held at 9155 Harbor Drive in Bay St. Louis on April 7th from 2 to 4 p.m.

EVA ALLISON JOHNSON

Eva Allison Johnson passed away peacefully on Thursday, January 18, 2024, in Bay St. Louis, MS at the age of 56 surrounded by family. She was born in El Paso, TX on November 10, 1967, the second of thirteen children, living most of her childhood in Texas. She later moved with her family to Waveland, MS where she graduated from Bay Senior High School in 1986.

Allison was always nurturing and kind, looking out for and caring for her younger siblings, nieces, and nephews. Animals flocked to her loving spirit, as she often walked the neighborhood looking for strays. She enjoyed painting and music, writing her own lyrics, and singing in choirs. She was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, received her Young Womanhood Recognition medallion, and continued to serve at church and in the temple. She had a lifelong love of learning and had an incredible memory. She loved being around people, socializing with friends and family, and was ever-present at family gatherings.

Allison is preceded in death by her father, Alvin Donith Johnson and survived by her mother, Edith Elaine Ladner, and siblings Michelle LaCour (Lance), Don Johnson, Jr. (Yvonne), Jennifer Cass (Roger), Jessica Lewis (Matt), Megan McCardle (Tim), Ross Johnson (Tamara), Seth Johnson (Kelsey), Liz Muttschall (Brian), Skip Ladner (Cat), Paige Coward (Chris), Brad Ladner (Hebra), Ashley Bourgeois (Gene), and many nieces and nephews.

Allison has returned home to her Father in Heaven to be with her eternal family members and beloved kitty-cats. Her family wishes to thank her doctors, caregivers, and ministering church family who have served and shown compassion to her throughout her life. They take comfort in knowing Families are Forever and that they will be with her again.

Visitation for Allison was held on Monday, January 22, 2024, from 10:00 to 11:00 AM at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Days Saints at 1911 McLaurin St., Waveland, MS. Her memorial service was at 11:00 AM followed by interment at the Garden of Memories Cemetery.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.reimannfamily.com. Riemann Family Funeral Home, Waveland, is providing service for the family. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to www.friendsoftheanimalshelter.org.

ANTHONY AUGUST MARCIANTE JR.

Anthony August Marciante, Jr., 71, passed away at his residence in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi on February 28, 2024.

Anthony was born on May 11, 1952 in New Orleans, LA.

He graduated from West Jefferson High School and attended Nichols State University. He was a member of New Day Christian Center in Livingston Parish, LA. Anthony was an avid drag racer for over 4 decades and looked forward to attending Crusin’ The Coast each year. He enjoyed fishing and being near the water at their camp. He was also a huge animal lover, especially rescues, of which he adopted numerous over the years.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Anthony and Lois Marciante and sister, Linda A. Marciante.

He is survived by his wonderful and loving wife, Kathy Crain Marciante; son, Chad Anthony Marciante (Angelle’) of Houma, LA; daughter; Toni Marciante Schumert (Todd) of Denham Springs, LA; grandchildren; McKenzie Marciante, Jackson Juneau, Annabella Marciante, Rocky Marciante, Lillian Marciante, and Emma Schumert. He also leaves behind his four fur babies, Pepper, Charlie, Lil’ Mamma, and Scooby.

In lieu of flowers, Anthony’s family requests any donation to be made to the Hancock County Animal Shelter, Humane Society of South Mississippi or any local animal shelter of your choosing.

A Celebration of Life will be held in Anthony’s favorite city, 85 Good Street Bay St. Louis, MS, 39520 on the date of his birth, Saturday, May 11, 2024 from 1:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m.

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Anthony August Marciante, Jr.

WANDA SKAGERBERG

Wanda Skagerberg of Waveland, MS died peacefully at home on Tuesday, March 19, 2024.

Wanda was born on Christmas Day in 1928 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, to parents Sherman W. and Jesse (née Tallant) Manley. After graduating from Colton Union High School (California) in the class of 1946, Wanda went on to San Bernardino Valley College and Long Beach State, graduating from Orange County Hospital School of Nursing. While working as a nurse at San Francisco City and County Hospital, she met Dr. David Skagerberg, and they were married at the chapel on Treasure Island in San Francisco in 1955. Dave and Wanda moved to Alaska, where son Eric was born, and then Minnesota, where daughter Andrea was born. After settling in La Habra Heights, California, Wanda enrolled in Western State College of Law and graduated around 1973. A genetic condition resulted in the loss of her eyesight, ending her legal aspirations, but did not dampen her fierce independence or determination. In 1977, Dr. Skagerberg’s career took them to Fort Smith, Arkansas, and five years later to Waveland, Mississippi, where Wanda was David’s assistant in a medical consulting office in Bay St. Louis. Wanda enjoyed gardening, home improvement projects, local history, listening to audiobooks on a vast range of subjects, and a close relationship with her beloved daughter Andrea. Following Hurricane Katrina, Wanda oversaw the rebuilding of their home, which was among the first homes to reappear on the Waveland beachfront. As her husband David’s health declined, Wanda relied on the invaluable care of Mr. David Bartelt, now of North Carolina. For the past seven years, caretakers Wesley and Terri Blalock and their family members allowed Wanda to maintain her independence through the end of her life.

Wanda was predeceased by her husband David in 2011, and by her siblings Mary Ellen Clark, Donald Manley, Francis (“Pete”) Manley, and Sherman Manley Jr.

She is survived by loving son Eric and daughter-in-law Ellen of Santa Rosa, California, and devoted daughter Andrea Skagerberg of Waveland, Mississippi.

The family appreciates the support of members of Main Street Methodist Church of Bay St. Louis, as well as the care of Hospice, whose support allowed Wanda to remain at home throughout her final weeks.

A Graveside burial will be held Tuesday, March 26, 2024, at 1:30 p.m. at Biloxi National Cemetery in Biloxi, MS followed by a reception at the Skagerberg home.

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Wanda Skagerberg.

Easter Thoughts

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

This Sunday is the day that Christians throughout the world observe Easter. The history of this day is based on the reports in the New Testament (Christian scripture) that after Jesus was crucified by officials of the Roman government, he was buried in a borrowed tomb, and on the third day he rose from the dead and appeared alive to a number of his followers. This account is recorded in various forms in all four of the Gospels. It was not a part of the original manuscript of the Gospel of Mark, which is the earliest of the Gospels, but it was included in later renditions. This story forms the foundation of what we now know as the Christian faith. The birth narratives, found in Matthew and Luke, along with these resurrection accounts, are the “book-ends” of the religion which has circled the globe. It has been, and continues to be, transforming for multitudes of people. Of course, the story has been, and still is, questioned by many.

In this modern age of skepticism and doubt, it is seen by many as counter intuitive to embrace the notion that a human being could be violently killed, and by a super-natural miracle live again in physical form. It is hardly surprising that many people find it difficult to embrace. It is important to consider that the realm of spirituality is, and has always been, more a matter of internal personal perception and experience than about evidence. In other words, faith is at the heart of the story. The life and teaching of Jesus was essentially about love, forgiveness, kindness, offering help to the needy, and most of all, the recognition that not one of us is perfect. All of us are in need of the compassion which Jesus taught and offered. By the same token, all of us can be instruments of those qualities as we relate to others. We can be a blessing to those around us. Easter is the reminder that life can be found, not in what we can grasp in this world, but in what we can share. These insights are part of the Judeo-Christian teaching in scripture and throughout the multiple accounts of the faith. Please do not perceive these thoughts as a means to rationalize a beautiful mystery, or an attempt to water down a beloved story. Rather they are intended as an invitation to be open to the possibility that the wonder of Easter is still available. Times change. Information grows.

Perspectives evolve. However, the profoundness of those ancient teachings of Jesus remain constant. Love your enemy. Return evil with good. Welcome the stranger. Minister to the captive. Feed the hungry. Trust the future to the one who holds it. In the beautiful words of the late song writer Natalie Sleeth: There’s a song in every silence, seeking word and melody, There’s a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me. From the past will come the future, what it holds, a mystery, Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

Happy Easter

AREA TEAMS STRUGGLE ON SOFTBALL DIAMOND

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The area high school softball teams struggled last week with several games on the high school diamond.

BAY HIGH LADY TIGERS

The Lady Tigers stumbled against Pass Christian on Tuesday falling 7-6

Bay gave up five runs on two errors in the first inning before settling in to allow just two more runs the rest of the game.

Bay High head coach Wali Shabazz stated, “We started slow tonight and could not catch up.

We have to start fast, make plays in the field, and see everything compound from there. Madison Favre was off-balance in the first inning but settled down. This was the first division game so all of our goals are still in front of us.”

The Lady Tigers also dropped games with Poplarville 14-1 and Greene County 12-3 to fall to 3-8-1 overall and 0-3 in division.

HANCOCK LADY HAWKS

The Lady Hawks split a pair of games with George County falling 10-6 and winning 3-2 to improve to 8-2-1 overall and 3-1 in division play.

OUR LADY ACADEMY CRESCENTS

The Crescents are still searching for their first win of the season falling to West Marion 17-0, Perry Central 27-13, and Sacred Heart 16-1 and 19-11. The Crescents are 0-12 overall and 0-5 in division.

HANCOCK SWEEPS LONG BEACH, BAY & SSC PICK UP DIVISION WINS

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The high school baseball season enters the last month of the regular season before the playoffs begin on April 25.

BAY HIGH TIGERS

The Tigers beat Poplarville on Tuesday 3-1 as Walker Seymour got the win on the mound throwing a complete game allowing four hits and striking out 12 batters. Ethan Kingston had a two-run double and Brennan Bilich a solo homerun for the difference.

On Thursday, Bay High dropped their game with Poplarville 2-1.

Maddux Mayo had two hits for the Tigers while Brayden Necaise had a single and abilich a solo homerun. Gabe Edkins took the loss throwing a complete game with six strikeouts.

Bay head coach BJ Corr commented, “Gabe Edkins gave us a solid performance. We played solid defense behind him but we just didn’t not adjust at the plate. We hit several fly outs. Poplarville did a solid job of getting to the fly ball and making the out.”

In other action, Bay

High dropped a game on Saturday with Forrest County AHS 3-0 to fall to 4-10 overall and 2-2 in division.

HANCOCK HAWKS

The Hawks swept a division series with Long Beach last week 7-1, 11-1, and 7-5. Hancock improves to 8-6 overall and 3-0 in division action.

SAINT STANISLAUS ROCK-A-CHAWS

The Rocks beat Perry Central 13-3 on Tuesday behind the arm of Brady Wallis who threw four innings and allowed four hits with five strikeouts and six walks. Wiley Mossy had three hits and Tate Murphy and Wallis each had three RBIs.

SSC head coach Brad Corley stated, “Anytime your ace is on the mound and does not have his best stuff and you can get a win, that is a good thing.”

On Thursday, the Rocks dropped the return trip to Perry Central 4-2 to fall to 8-5 overall and 2-2 in division.

Brother Barry served as academic assistant principal before being appointed president. During his eight years as president, he led the school through the COVID pandemic and helped bring significant improvements to school programs and facilities, including the replacement of outdated main campus lighting with energy-efficient LED lights, as well as major renovations to the chemistry lab, including state-of-the-art technology, equipment, and furniture and the creation of the school’s STEM lab and classroom. In addition, all other classrooms were modernized with improved technology infrastructure and equipment, new flooring, furniture, and white boards. Outside the school building, Brother Barry directed the work to remove the old chapel and gym, which had become safety hazards since Hurricane Katrina. They were replaced with greenspace creating a more welcoming and visually appealing campus.

“My time at Saint Stanislaus has been a blessing to me beyond measure,” Brother Barry commented. “Gary and Nancy have demonstrated their total commitment to SSC and the Brothers’ charism. I am so pleased that they will be president and principal. Our school is in great hands.”

Brother Barry will remain at SSC through the summer before beginning a sabbatical program in August. He will then move to Metuchen, New Jersey, to begin service next January at St. Joseph High School where his primary responsibilities will be teaching as well as faculty and student formation in the Brothers’ charism.

provide phone and electrical service, garbage service, pest control, water and sewer, flood insurance as well as some janitorial services and fix things that are associated with the building. You take care of all the equipment inside the building, refrigerators and freezers and stuff like that.”

Jan Vest, who took over as treasurer after John Wittliff’s departure, gave the board a financial overview from 2023.

“The highlights of 2023 include a generous donation from the estate of a long-term volunteer of the food pantry of $373,000,” he said. “With those funds, we have secured CDs at the highest interest rate we can get and that’s going to be a big part of a funding source for us as we go forward into the future. Since we’re an all-volunteer organization, raising funds is always the biggest challenge. From year to year, it’s not predictable, grants are not always predictable. So that has been a great asset to us as we ended the year and also going into the future.”

Contributions for the year totaled $618,792, which includes the large donation, Vest said, which were from churches, businesses, civic groups, and local and national foundations.

“Hancock County, according to a recent study by Mississippi State, has over 46 percent of children in Bay St. Louis living at or below the poverty level,” he said. “So the need is quite substantial and 23 percent of our clients are children. We provided with the community support over 825,000 meals to the community. A big part of our program is donated food. We received 209,000 pounds of donated food from the community, 26,000 pounds from the Twelve Baskets food bank, 142,00 pounds from retail groceries, military commissaries, and Bethel Ministries out of New Orleans.”

Since the pantry’s opening in 1986, it has provided food to more than 351,000 individuals and 165,000 families, Vest said.

The Hancock County Food Pantry is located at 9972 Hwy. 603, Bay St. Louis.

The hours of operation, beginning April 1, will be Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to noon.

Kyger said the pantry will continue to operate as a drive-thru, however, clients will still need to come inside the building to certify or re-certify.

Interested parties can visit the pantry during the normal hours of operations to learn more about registering for food benefits, Kyger said.

“They will get food on that first day and find out what documentation they will need to complete the registration,” he said.

Humphrey said the schedule was set up for every other Thursday to cut parks, highway, graveyard, Waveland Avenue and Central.

“As for the start schedule, I pushed it back for the St. Patrick’s Day parade and close to Easter,” he said.

LaFontaine said that could have been done as a special cut, given the mayor has the authority to order one.

“Now, we’re all paying the price because the grass is a foot tall and taller in some spots and possibly another four weeks before it gets cut in certain areas,” he said.

Humphrey said that the contract is set up to where the contractor won’t get paid for uncompleted work.

“I discussed that with him in that meeting and when I talked to him after the mayor called me about the grass,” he said. “But then, he said ‘it’s not fair for me to cut from section 1 all the way back.’ The way I get it, he’s trying to come from Bay St. Louis and work everything in a pattern.”

LaFontaine said the problem with that is “last year, every time we would ask where they were cutting, it’s ‘we don’t know.’”

“We set it up this way so that y’all sign off on, and I say y’all, someone in the city is responsible for signing off on it as each section is complete,” he said. “It’s supposed to be dated and signed off on. Then when the payment comes through, it’s going to have it on there, every section has been cut and complete and at that time, payment is issued. But the way it’s going right now, they’re cutting on the south side down here, on the same exact day, they’re cutting on Old Spanish Trail, on the same exact day, they’re cutting on the highway. So, part of the contract was so that we could keep up. Just like I’ve got people asking me right now ‘when’s the grass going to be cut?’ I can’t tell them. But, if I knew they were in section 1 cutting, I’d say, we’ll you’re probably looking at about two weeks. I don’t know what we’re going to do to get it straightened up, per the contract, the scheduling.”

City attorney Ronnie Artigues clarified that the board was discussing the city’s part in moving the schedule, not the contractor.

Humphrey said the contractor is not cutting in Waveland this week.

Trapani said the city needs to “stick to the letter of the contract and visit with it to see how we’re going to get back on it.”

LaFontaine suggested that the board see the documentation for the grass cutting and that the city has signed off on completion and placed on the agenda as a motion to make payment per the contract.

In other action:

Lt. Tim Burchett with the Waveland Fire Department was named February’s Employee of the Month.

The board extended the temporary moratorium (Ordinance #381) on the submissions and acceptance of the application for building permits for the use of metal containers as dwellings and in the construction of habitable buildings, both residential and commercial for an additional 180 days from April 19, 2024 to October 19, 2024.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 2 at 6:30 p.m.

EASTER EGG HUNTS AND OTHER EGGCEPTIONAL TRADITIONS

Easter is celebrated in various ways. Traditional religious commemorations include Saturday evening Easter vigils and Sunday morning Resurrection masses. Parents may spend Easter weekend putting the finishing touches on Easter Bunny baskets, and many families favor a combination of traditions.

Since religious as well as secular imagery and traditions have melded to form the Easter most individuals recognize today, a mix of customs may be part of your Easter festivities. Among them will be colored eggs, egg hunts and possibly even egg rolls. Just how was the Easter egg tradition hatched?

Pre-Christian Societies

Before Christianity was as widespread as it is in modern times, many societies associated eggs with spring and new life. Many birds and animals lay eggs early in spring, and these eggs tend to hatch upon the arrival of the warm weather, budding flowers and buzzing insects.

Ancient Persians are believed to have painted eggs for Nowrooz, their new year celebration that would fall on the spring equinox each year.

Eggs also have been part of Passover celebrations. A hard-boiled egg dipped in salt water is served at a Passover seder, symbolizing both new life away from oppression and the Passover sacrifice at the Temple in Jerusalem, according to Chabad.org.

Lent, Christianity and eggs

In medieval times, eating eggs was forbidden during Lent, when both dairy and meat were avoided. To reduce waste, eggs laid during Lent were boiled or preserved in some way.

The fast ended on Easter Sunday, and eggs became, once again, important and nutritious staples — especially for poor families that couldn't afford much meat. Eggs also were given to the church by medieval English villagers and also to the lords of the manor. Royals eventually got in on the act, and decorated eggs were distributed to the household in a tradition that was one of the earliest to include eggs.

Egg hunts and more

Some historians suggest that egg hunts can be traced back to German Protestant reformer Martin Luther, who organized egg hunts for his congregation. The men would hide the eggs for the women and children to find. This symbolized the story of Christ's resurrection, when the tomb was discovered by women. The eggs also represented Jesus' new life and his emergence from the tomb.

Egg hunts are not the only egg-related games that were hatched for Easter celebrations. According to the website Learn Religions, some European children go from house to house begging for Easter eggs, like children may ask for treats on Halloween. The custom is called "pace-egging," a term derived from the old word for Easter, "Pasch." Egg rolls also are symbolic of rolling away the stone from Christ's tomb. Various countries have their own rules on egg rolls. In Germany, for example, children roll their eggs down a track made from sticks.

Easter eggs are an integral symbol of the holiday that hold both secular and religious meaning.
